TRAINS LEAVE FOOT EAST 34TH ST.

A new lot of silk umbrellas: $3 ($3.50 for larger size). Worth more—we shan't say just how much—four dollars anyway.

What do we know about 'em?

As much as we know about most umbrellas. It is our business to judge the goods we sell, and our judgment is that these are good umbrellas.

Our opinion of our $5 "Tip-top" umbrella is more than judgment. We know what it is made of and how it's made, from beginning to end; and everything is in its favor.

We know our clothing the same way—only a little more so.

Clara's Letter

About Tea Tables.

My Dear May—Your note has really been the source of a great deal of pleasure to me, for you know I enjoy shopping.

To be sure, I have a few friends, to Baumans, Brothers, 22-26 East 14th st., but I had no idea of finding, even there, such an assortment. There must have been one hundred different styles, perhaps more.

Round tables, square and oval and heart-shaped, in all the different woods—Mahogany, Oak, the exquisite Bird's-Eye Maple, the lovely Curly Birch, white and gold—some inlaid, some "double decked," a place above for the teapot and below for the cups—and all in the latest styles, and looking so cozy and social. I don't wonder they are fashionable.

Now, if you will leave the selection to me, I am sure you will be suited, for the prices at Baumans Brothers are always the lowest in New York. Yours very sincerely,

CLARA.

B.—It is the firm, you know, that is always so accommodating as to terms, and "pays the freight."

Yours affecly,
